++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Very warm with sunny spells.

Today:
A fine and dry day across the country. Cloudy for most during the early morning but soon turning brighter with spells of sunshine. Feeling very warm, especially away from any coastal winds. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with plenty of clear skies at first but soon turning cloudier during the early hours as cloud makes its way into the country. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Thursday:
Breezy and cloudy to start but turning brighter by the afternoon. Feeling cooler than of late, but remaining warm in some southwestern areas. Chilly overnight with a risk of frost. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Dry with periods of sunshine on Friday and Saturday but also with colder nights, bringing a likelihood of frost. Initially dry on Sunday but turning wet and windy later.
